FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE July 28, 2009

Foam Magazine's talents featured in double-sized issue

Foam Magazine is proud to announce the featured talents in this special double-sized fall issue. Besides the usual six portfolios, we added twelve more bodies of work. This means: over 250 pages of outstanding photography!

About a thousand talented photographers from around the world sent us their work. The majority was of great quality, which made it extremely difficult to make a selection, but it's finally done. Foam Magazine's 2009 Talent-call portfolio winners are: Aaron Schuman, Alexander Gronsky, Amira Fritz, Anouk Kruithof, Daniel Naudé, Davide Monteleone, Elliott Wilcox, João Castilho, Julian Faulhaber, Leonie Purchas, Michael Lundgren, Nadim Asfar, Peter van Agtmael, Ronald Leong, Sarah Gerats, Simone Bergantini, Taisuke Koyama and Timo Klos.

Foam Magazine cares greatly about presenting the work of young and talented photographers and about showing their importance in the future development of photography. Therefore, Foam Magazine's fall issue #20 / Talent is devoted exclusively to the work of emerging photographers from around the world. A must-have issue that is essential for everyone who is passionately involved with photography.

The 15th of September Foam Magazine's 'Talent' issue will be in stores worldwide!
