FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE December 16th, 2009

OUT NOW! Foam Magazine #21 / MERGE

The new issue, Foam Magazine #21 / MERGE, is now available worldwide in bookstores, specialist shops, galleries, online, and of course at Foam_Fotografiemuseum Amsterdam. This issue breaks the boundaries of the photographic ideal by focusing on the fusions of photography with other media and art forms.

Foam Magazine has put together eight portfolios that expose the bond of photography with other media forms. This connection is the focal point of our winter issue, Foam Magazine #21 / MERGE. From the controversial images of Adam Broomberg & Oliver Chanarin, to the humorous approach of Freudenthal / Verhagen, #21 / MERGE reveals the continuous influences and bonds between the different media.

Starting with this issue, each Foam Magazine will now include eight portfolios, instead of the usual six. This means 32 extra pages to exhibit outstanding photography and opportunities to inspire.

Portfolios: Adam Broomberg & Oliver Chanarin, Andrey Tarkovsky, David Claerbout, Freudenthal & Verhagen, Gunnel Wählstrand, Nickel van Duijvenboden, Naoya Hatakeyama, and Penelope Umbrico

Foam Magazine's winter issue is an incredible source of inspiration for artists and a necessary collectors item for the contemporary art lover.
